MORTLY after the Gu-

Djarat pogrom in 2002,

BOOKS in review

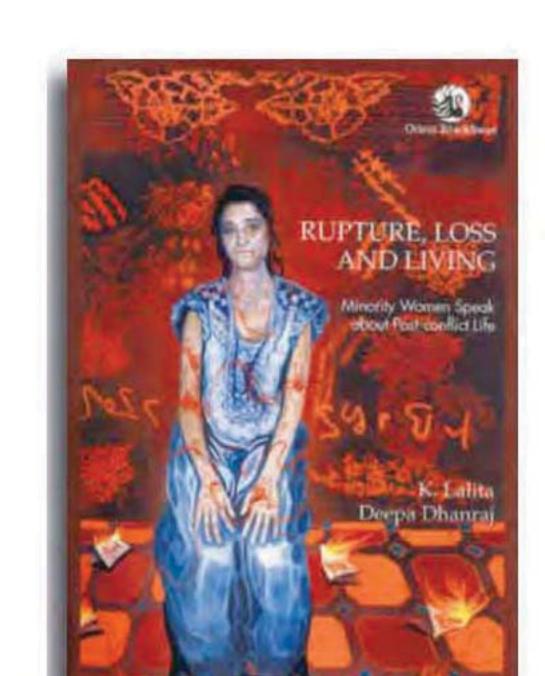

Scars of memory

The book brings out the horrifying stories of the women victims of the 2002 Gujarat pogrom, opening old wounds that leave one hurt, angry and ashamed all over again. BY ZIYA US SALAM Narendra Modi, then the Chief Minister of the State, launched a Gujarat Gaurav Yatra (Frontline, October 25, 2002). Speaking at the yatra rally at Becharaji in Mehsana district in northern Gujarat, he is reported to have said, "Hum paanch, hamare pachees" (we five, ours 25), alluding to the imagined explosion of the Muslim population. He mocked the members of the Muslim community who found themselves in of Ramzan.

Modi's remarks proprotests. Members of civil Becharaji; Modi the hu- ashamed all over again.

Rupture, Loss and Minority Women Speak about Post-conflict Life

By K. Lalita and Deepa Dhanraj Orient BlackSwan,

Pages: 434

relief camps and tempor- society, trying to help man being lost badly. More limb and property. Yet at the gross insensitivity of leaguered providing justice.

Modi the BJP leader wounds and leave you feel- lentils, groundnut, chillies voked a wave of anger and held sway that day at ing hurt, angry and and wheat.

These women deserve better. This is a book that is not to be read in a hurry. It is a book that essentially says something that has not been said earlier. Yet, it says something that deserves and needs to be said all over again in 2017 as fury manifests on roadsides in the form of lynching of innocent cattle owners. Lalita and Deepa Dhanraj open a review window; the look is still ugly and despicable. For the media, every riot begins as breaking news and politicians, it is an oppor-north of Ahmedabad. tunity. For the victims of shared a camaraderie.

Salmaben continues to is soon consigned to the OCTOBER 2002: Chief Minister Narendra Modi during dustbin of history. For the Gujarat Gaurav Yatra at Ambaji town, 190 kilometres

Do we want to open baby- burned down before their Women Speak about Post- hate violence gripped the still felt it was her place. broken tap here, a producing centres? But for eyes, their life's savings Conflict Life. State, several families of The authors write: "It is smashed wall there. certain people that means looted and their lives The book brings out the the village were killed. Sal-poignant that Sajidaben hum paanch, hamare pa- turned upside down. horrifying stories of the wo- maben escaped in a Tempo makes an effort to seal the LOST CHILDHOOD chees." He then went on to Worse still, their girls and men victims of mass viol- Traveller along with 83 broken water tap in a The Gujarat pogrom and, not in the Muslim month building their homes or thors K. Lalita and Deepa caping was to go back to to the very deep connec- places such as Kolkata, the documentary film- women."

that represents 'home'?"

communal violence, the live in hope, her displace- and the rest of the victims strangers results in feel- observe it diligently. passage of years does little ment still palpable. The were uprooted from the ings of impotence and Hence, people may have Run relief camps for them? had seen their houses Loss and Living: Minority Sabarkantha. When the lost everything, Sajidaben memories, stoked by a ity and betrayal."

Dhanraj write: "Witness- not observe rituals; I did ing extreme forms of violagainst family a day. I had full faith in members, friends and Islam but I am not able to man with two sons. Fol- seen. Violence affects lowing the riots, she had to everybody, not just the dirrelocate to a relief camp at ect victims. Nobody is safe Idar. The incidents had from the poison. The au-disturbed her son so much thors bring to light the ex-that he failed in the exam- perience of Sophia Khan, a inations held after the mob lawyer and social activist violence. The failure even in Ahmedabad. Like many threatened his life. Some in that stratum of society, children had seen their she imagined herself to be mothers criminally assaul- above cases of hate violted and killed, their fathers ence on the basis of relihacked to death. Many of gion. She lived in a social them were brought to vacuum, she assumed, be-

Delhi by civil society mem- fore reality knocked hard.

bers and provided psycho- She was a Muslim after all.

logical help to restart their Or is it first of all? Yes, lives. It was a tall order. communal riots make

Some scars refuse to go people aware of their roots, of where they come from.

Salmaben, Sajidaben Ayeshaben, a single wo- away unannounced, un- it on others. The victims of ors." She decided to try for and looted her belongings. it means putting her life at gently.

and Deepa Sophia Khan recalls: "I did not offer namaaz five times minish the trauma. All that ment. There is Sajidaben, years. Every brick of the often sexualised and of ex- tity. After 2002, such reflections of their suffer- but the police registered dargah in Ahmedabad. they want is to go back to too. Her house was re- house, a tuft of grass, a bit hibitionist brutality—per- questioning became ing in the widows and her complaint on a wrong cutting across religions back to survey the wreck- of belonging, a sense of people known to them, and women's groups, I was Panchmahal. Not every- came from a Hindu ac- cused. The case is pending It is also about where you age, she found that the ownership. Yet the ques- sometimes aided and abet- now majorly seen as a body took the suffering quaintance, who pleaded in the Sessions Court. As Salmaben of walls were broken and the tion is: belonging to ted by police and mob mili- Muslim. Some people quietly. Some wept or with her neighbours that ary dwellings as the state Muslims find their feet than 15 years later, the in- Sabarkantha says: "We house was burnt. She whom, to what? Owner- tias, cause severe trauma. wanted to call me to their wailed, others decided to Sajidaben and her mother hope to those in a similar Sajidaben, it means the failed to protect their life, again, were shell-shocked sults he heaped on the be- shall get killed but we shall found water flowing out of ship of what? The houses Both victims and witnesses meeting because I am a fight back, inch by inch. had done no wrong. She situation. Her Hindu ac- world. Muslim go back to our place." She a broken tap and set about were all gone, even many suffer from recognised Muslim; and some did not Like Sajidaben, who now took them to a relief camp quaintance, her magnan-Modi could not help say- the Chief Minister mock- community came back to had 52 bighas (8.3 hec- plugging the leak with family members had per- symptoms of trauma and want to because I am a lives in a makeshift hut in and gave them Rs.500 imous landlord, who Dhanraj deserve credit for ing: "What should we do? ing his own people, who mind as I read Rupture, tares) of land in rolled rag. Although she ished. All that stayed were immense levels of insecur- Muslim! ...I felt that, Himmatnagar. Before the each. Soon, Sajidaben set allowed her to dig a tent on stating things as they are. though I had become a 2002 pogrom, she was a upatent on a parcel of land his ground, and, above all, They avoid hyperbole. It manifested itself in feminist, in the end I was cattle breeder in she mistook for wasteland. her own will to live and They refuse to sink into the case of young men and only a Muslim. I mean, I Sabarkantha. Although The owner, however, al-fight back are balm for sorrow. With the eye of a women, who years after was being reminded I am a not very rich, she enjoyed lowed her to stay. wounded spirits. In lesser hawk and the precision of a the 2002 violence, found Muslim; I am a Muslim social and business ties Sajidaben picked up the measure though, the hope geometrician, they have themselves waking up in and that's why I had to with both Hindus and pieces of her life. She star- comes from the words of given us a book that tells us communalise water, too, women were raped and ence, of women longing to others. Only 17 survived house that no longer really for that matter, all conflicts the middle of the night, change my house, I am a Muslims. Life was built on ted working in a hospital Aminaben. For 35 years, just how irresponsible wondering whether the elderly members of the belong, of displacement and Salmaben was one of existed. Why does she even leave families dispos- screaming, shrieking. Muslim and that is why I limited means and plenty and as a maid, too. Along she lived in her village Modi was when he made Congress would criticise community hacked to and yearning to return to them. She was a midwife remember the water gush- sessed, deprived and even some mouthed expletives had to change my office.... I of shared joys. It changed the way came other chal- house, which she called the that inflammatory and him for bringing Narmada death. Yet, the Chief Min- the place they called their and had even worked with ing out? Did the gesture divided. Take, for instance, on seeing Modi on televi- am a Muslim, and that is after 2002 when her house lenges: being a single wo- Tajmahal. Her house was communal remark at water to the Sabarmati ister could only think of home. In story after story, the government's Adult simply indicate a claiming the children of Naroda sion, others were kept why after 2002 I took a was destroyed and her man is never easy. Sajida looted by her neighbours, Becharaji and how we have river basin in the Hindu them as baby-producing sentence after sentence and Education Department. of what was once hers, or Patiya, who were sent away from such exposure conscious decision that I cattle were stolen. She re- was accosted by a hotel who had been guests at her failed as a society to lend a holy month of Shravan and factories and not about re- word after word, the au- All she longed for after es- does it perhaps also point away as "orphans" to by friends and relatives, as should work with Muslim calls: "It is the women of owner who urged her to daughter's wedding which helping hand to the needy Dhanraj touch upon old her fields where she grew tion she has with the phys- Mumbai and Bengaluru so maker Rakesh Sharma Paradoxically, the riots our house. Whatever they fobbed him off. She de- before the violence. She takes its toll. It is the ical and emotional space that they could get educa- once recalled. Some boys that deprived millions of could lay their hands on, cided to fight against those yearns to go back to her peacetime numbers that the village who first looted give in to his demands. She had taken place a few days women. Every conflict tion. Or even the son of quit their studies and went their identities reimposed they took away on tract- who wrecked her house watan (homeland), even if need to be attended to ur-to heal their wounds. Dis- only consolation is that she place they had called their varying degrees of fear and legal redress, and lodged a MARCH 3, 2002: Muslims, whose houses had been set tance in time does not di- is not alone in her predica- home for 30, 50 or even 70 trauma. The violences— ance to my Muslim iden- Sabarkantha found mirror complaint with the police, ablaze during the riots, gather for a meal at the Shah Alam the time when life was duced to cinders by hoo- of soot meant so much to petrated against men, milder. There was once orphans of Hyderabad and date. In this tale of gloom, She registered a complaint risk. After all, life is not peaceful and neighbours ligans. When she went them It gave them a sense women and children, by change there. In NGOs Mumbai, Vadodara and there was a ray of hope. It with the names of the ac- merely about who you are.

Her case gives a ray of Aminaben, Salmaben, and come from. In the case of

Lalita and Deepa

FRONTLINE · JULY 21, 2017

FRONTLINE · JULY 21, 2017 FRONTLINE · JULY 21, 2017